RECORDS REQUESTED: (Be as specific as you can, describing types of records, dates, parties to correspondence, subject matter, etc. The public body will make every reasonable effort to assist you in identifying the record being sought. Requests for voluminous records may be delayed.)

- 1) All fee agreements, contracts, invoices and records of payment to the law firm of Loeb and Loeb LLP for representation of Delaware in Delaware v. Arkansas, et al., Nos. 220145 & 220146
- 2) All fee agreements, contracts, invoices and records of payments to the law firm of Hogan Lovells for representation of Delaware in Delaware v. Arkansas, et al., Nos. 220145 & 220146

There may be costs involved in responding to your request. The public body can require you to examine the records at the office of the public body. Refer to the public body's policy or regulations for information about costs and access to records.

Contact me if cost greater than 500.00

Within 15 business days from receipt of your request the public body must either provide you with access to the records, deny your request, or state that additional time is needed.

NOTICE: Under Delaware's Freedom of Information Act, 29 Del. C. §§ 10001-10007 ("FOIA"), a FOIA request or petition, along with any information contained therein or any documents attached thereto, submitted to any "public body" subject to FOIA, including, without limitation, any board, bureau, commission, department, agency or committee of the State, may itself be deemed a "public record" subject to disclosure under FOIA.
