Counsel for California:

Aimee Feinberg (aimee.feinberg@doj.ca.gov)

Craig Rust (craig.rust@doj.ca.gov)

II. PROCEDURAL RULES TO BE FOLLOWED

The Parties agree that this matter should be generally governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The Parties agree that all submissions to the Special Master as well as discovery requests exchanged between the Parties will use the caption attached hereto as Exhibit B and will be served and filed electronically. The Parties further agree that the discovery process and proposed case schedule set out below may be amended by stipulation of all the Parties, subject to the approval of the Special Master, or upon motion demonstrating good cause.

III. DISCOVERY PROCESS

A. Process Generally

The Parties agree as follows:

1. The ordinary tools of discovery available under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure should be used in this matter.
2. All discovery shall be coordinated with the lead case counsel identified in Section I above, including any necessary discovery from third parties.
3. Plaintiff will prepare a uniform set of discovery requests to serve on each Defendant state, but Plaintiff is not waiving its right to send individualized requests should the need arise.
4. Defendants will prepare a uniform set of discovery requests on behalf of all Defendant states to serve on Plaintiff, but Defendants are not waiving their right to send individualized requests should the need arise.
5. The Parties agree to discuss and propose in a separate document terms governing the confidentiality of documents produced.
6. The Parties agree to discuss and propose in a separate document terms governing the production of electronically stored information ("EST").

B. Case Schedule

The Parties request that the Special Master enter a Case Management Order setting the following schedule:

1. Initial disclosures due: 21 days from the entry of this order.
2. Final date for joining additional parties: 30 days from the entry of this order.
3. Final date for amending pleadings: 30 days from the entry of this order.
4. Initial written discovery demands to be served: 45 days from the entry of this order.

5. Discovery, including fact depositions and third party practice, to be completed by: June 25, 2018
6. Reports from Retained Experts Due: August 24, 2018.
7. Expert Deposition Deadlines: October 23, 2018.
8. Dispositive Motions Due: December 7, 2018.
